THE CITY OF OAKLEY

Entrepreneur Training Program

The complete business planning process for existing Oakley businesses and serious start-ups

“The program helped me develop a realistic plan, enabling me to actually start a company”— BENJAMIN

“The class provided an excellent medium to survey current business functions, learn a host of new ideas and concepts, all while benefiting from an incredible synergy created by other participants in the class... This class forces you to take a step back and look at the bigger picture and individually evaluate the integral parts of what goes into making your business successful”— GERRY

“Jeff has a way of really getting to the meat and potatoes of what a business owner needs to stay focused on to succeed”— LAURA

“The Entrepreneur Training Class was the perfect opportunity and the smartest thing we have done for our business. We were able to not only develop a business plan, we were shown tools to better understand how to reach our target market”— SASHA

Trainer

The Entrepreneur Training Program is student centered, collaborative and interactive, and will be taught by Jeffrey G. Hall, an experienced professional educator and entrepreneur. For 15 years, Mr. Hall was affiliated with the Contra Costa Small Business Development

Center’s New Venture Training Program. During this time, Mr. Hall taught close to 50 sessions with over 1,000 business attendees. To learn more about Mr. Hall, please visit www.JeffreyGHall.com.

While the full cost of the Entrepreneur Training Program is $1,200 per student, training scholarships of $1,000 per student are being provided by the City of Oakley for up to 11 Oakley residents or business owners. Each student will be responsible for the remaining $200 to cover the cost of training materials.
