The Workshop

Thursday Sept. 12th 9am— Noon

at Oakley Entrepreneur Center 3330 Main Street, 2nd Floor

Is Self-Employment or Entrepreneurship Right for You?

If you have been thinking about starting your own business, but have questions about what it really takes and if it may be right for you, this workshop is for you! In this small class format, we will explore the ups and downs and nuts and bolts of starting and managing your own small business.

The workshop will cover three basic topics:

- 1. Could entrepreneurship be right for you?*
- 2. If so, what are the basic steps for a successful start-up? and*
- 3. Who are some people and resources that can help you if you are serious?*

The class will also cover:

*An Entrepreneurial Self-Assessment • The Entrepreneurial Spirit
Understanding the risks • Success factors • Personal Characteristics*

Class fee: $20.00 • RSVP - (925) 625-7006
