

Campaign Signs

Signs are not allowed in the public right-of-way or on any City-owned property, and any placement on private property requires the property owner's permission. Great care should also be taken so that a sign does not block the view of vehicles – primarily at street intersections.

Signs prohibited at these locations

